An accident

Last year, Yoanna and Gum Gum went to the beach. They settled down on the beach and planned to swim in the sea first. They jumped into the sea and went scuba diving. 'Come! Let's explore the splendid coral reef!' yelled Gum Gum. 'Good idea!' exclaimed Yoanna. They snapped numerous photos of coral and fish. They even planned to swim out the open waters.

As they did, Yoanna decided to look for whales. 'Listen! I hear some whales singing!' shouted Gum Gum. They swam further and soon spotted a pack of blue whales. 'Wow! They are so magnificent shrieked Gum Gum. The whales heard her and swept their tails towards them. Yoanna and Gum Gum went flying in the air and crashed onto the beach. Gum Gum broke her leg and Yoanna banged her head. In the end, the lifeguard sent them to hospital and told them to be careful. What a pathetic day!
