

An Accident

About two years ago, I was petting my cat, Miu Miu when I decided to clean its face since it was dirty. However, Miu Miu got really angry and scratched my arm.

It was a little scratch at first but then it started bleeding uncontrollably. I told my mum and she immediately took me to the hospital. I tried to hold in my tears since the injury made me feel very painful.

When we arrived at the hospital, the doctor put some alcoholic wipes on my wound. After that, he wrapped my arm with a bandage.

It has been two years since the accident but I still have the scar of the scratch. Now, I know that if I want to clean Miu Miu or any other cats, I will need a parent to help me.
